16th March at Rhubarb & 5th April at Riviera

Join us for our first collaboration of 2023!

Chef Paul Longworth will be joining hands with the exceptional Chef Rémy Carmignani of renowned Riviera - Mediterranean Fine Dining for a two-night collaboration at Rhubarb on 16th March & Riviera on 5th April.

Chef Paul's realm of experience in modern European cuisine working in top restaurants across London, Australia and Singapore is what he brings to the tables of Rhubarb - small, intimate and personal. His incredible finesse in serving just 7 tables in the dining room has retained Rhubarb's one-Michelin star since being awarded at the inaugural Singapore Michelin Guide in 2016.

Chef Paul will be curating a 6-course French-Mediterranean menu with Chef Rémy. Bookings are limited and will be on a first come basis.
